

Haute Confluence

By JOYCE FAN

Celebrating the confluence of lifestyle, fashion and luxury in the bustling city of Kuala Lumpur, Malaysian property developer KSK Land gathered the country's most prominent names in fashion for the launch of the latest instalment of its ongoing exhibition series. Specially curated for KSK Land's maiden project, 8 Conlay, the new exhibit titled Confluential 3.0: Prêt-À-Porter showcased two selected looks from designers Han Chong, Khoon Hooi, Joe Chia, Jonathan Liang, Ezzati Amira, Kittie Yiyi, Cassey Gan and Moto Guo, that embody the theme of 'confluential' being described as the distinct marriage of confluence, confidence and influence. The month-long exhibition not only served to establish 8 Conlay as a platform for people to explore the convergence of culture and narrative, but also pay tribute to the eight designers' growing presence at home and worldwide.
